

LO: I am learning to write an Ancient Egyptian poem.

Steps to success:

- I can use a range of adjectives, verbs and adverbs in my poem.
- I can include different types of punctuation in my poem.
- I can create a piece of writing for display focussing on spelling and presentation.

Tutankhamun!

I'm a boring, walking slowly Mummy.
When I was younger I played with a dummy!
My life is filled with awful gloom
I knew I was in for dreadful doom!
Once I was amazingly rich!
But now I'm in a filthy ditch.
My magnificent pyramid is guarded with a gigantic sphinx!

My Name Is Tutankhamun!
