

Cave Baby. What are you doing to the scare me? I New you were taking me to the big brown bear. Take me back home right this instant!

English: Friday 25th January 2019

LO: I am learning to rewrite a story as a play.

Steps to success:

- I can use the events of a story.
- I can change a story structure writing into speech.
- I can write using the features of a playscript.

TA	Independent	Teacher	Peer support
----	-------------	---------	--------------

Verbal feedback given!

Verbal feedback given by:

WLL

Woolly Mammoth: No! It's ok, come with me.

Cave Baby: Fine but your scaring me. Why can't you listen? (I'm an upset voice because Cave Baby thought they were amazing friends.)

Woolly Mammoth: I can listen really well with these tiny ears and its tree.

(Woolly Mammoth ^{walks} walked very slowly in the deepest darkest cave.)

Scene 5

(In the deepest darkest cave where Cave Baby and woolly Mammoth is.)

Cave Baby: I can't bare going in there. Its too spooky!
^{bear}

Woolly Mammoth: Here you go! (Woolly Mammoth holds out a paint brush and quickly gave the paint brush, in nervous Cave Babes cold hand.) You can start painting all over the rocky walls.