

Progression in Speaking and Listening skills leading to writing in different text types

Over the course of each academic year the following genres must be covered within each year group

Narrative
Recount
Explanation
Non-chronological reports
Persuasion
Information
Poetry
Instructions

Each class will show coverage of these within their planning, however the order they are covered will be determined by the class teacher in order to enable quality texts for each genre to be best suited to the individual topics, ensuring purposeful and cross-curricular English. It is important that the progressions of skills within each genre can be seen, understanding the importance of securing the speaking and listening skills within each genre prior to writing.

Progression in Narrative

	Listening to and reading a range of stories on page and screen which provoke different responses: Story structure Viewpoint: author; narrator Character & dialogue Setting	Creating stories orally, on page and screen, that will impact on listeners and readers in a range of ways: Telling stories Writing
EYFS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Listen to stories being told and read. Know when a story has begun and ended. Recognise simple repeatable story structures and some typical story language, for example, Once upon a time ... • Be aware that books have authors; someone is telling the story. • Stories are about characters; identify and describe their appearance referring to names and illustrations; notice when characters are speaking in the story by joining in, e.g. with a repeated phrase. • Stories happen in a particular place; identify 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Turn stories into play using puppets, toys, costumes and props; imagine and re-create roles; re-tell narratives using patterns from listening and reading; tell a story about a central character; experiment with story language by using familiar words and phrases from stories in re-telling and play. • Attempt own writing for various purposes, using features of different forms, including stories.
Year 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the beginning, middle and end in stories and use familiarity with this structure to make predictions about story endings; recall the main events. • Listen with sustained concentration and then talk about how the author created interest or excitement in the story; the voice telling the story is called the narrator. • Recognise main characters and typical characteristics, for example, good and bad characters in traditional tales; identify the goal or motive of the main character and talk about how it moves the plot on; notice how dialogue is presented in text and begin to use different voices for particular characters when reading dialogue aloud. • Settings can be familiar or unfamiliar and based on real life or fantasy. Respond by making links with own experience and identify story language used to describe imaginary settings. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Re-tell familiar stories and recount events; include main events in sequence, focusing on who is in the event, where events take place and what happens in each event; use story language, sentence patterns and sequencing words to organise events, (e.g.) then, next etc.; recite stories, supported by story boxes, pictures etc.; act out stories and portray characters and their motives. • Use patterns and language from familiar stories in own writing; write complete stories with a simple structure: beginning – middle – end, decide where it is set and use ideas from reading for some incidents and events.
Year 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the sequence: opening – something happens – events to sort it out – ending; identify temporal connectives and talk about how they are used to signal the passing of time; make deductions about why events take place in a 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Re-tell familiar stories using narrative structure and dialogue from the text; include relevant details and sustain the listeners interest; tell own real and imagined stories; explore

	particular order by looking at characters actions and their consequences. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Begin to understand elements of an author’s style, e.g. books about the same character or common themes. • Understand that we know what characters are like from what they do and say as well as their appearance; make predictions about how they might behave; notice that characters can change during the course of the story; the way that characters speak reflects their personality; the verbs used for dialogue tell us how a character is feeling, e.g. sighed, shouted, joked. • Settings are created using descriptive words and phrases; particular types of story can have typical settings – use this experience to predict the events of a story based 	character’s feelings and situations using improvisation; dramatise parts of own or familiar stories and perform to class or group. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Imitate familiar stories by borrowing and adapting structures; write complete stories with a sustained, logical sequence of events; use past tense and 3rd person consistently; include setting; create characters, e.g. by adapting ideas about typical story characters; include some dialogue; use phrases drawn from story language to add interest, (e.g.) she couldn’t believe her eyes.
Year 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consolidate understanding of sequential story structure: identify common, formal elements in story openings and endings and typical features of particular types of story; notice common themes, similar key incidents and typical phrases or expressions. Note the use of language or music or camera angle to set scenes, build tension, create suspense. • Recognise that authors make decisions about how the plot will develop and use different techniques to provoke reader’s reactions; notice the difference between 1st and 3rd person accounts; take part in dramatised readings using different voices for the narrator and main characters. • Identify examples of a character telling the story in the 1st person; make deductions about character’s feelings, behaviour and relationships based on descriptions and their actions in the story; identify examples of stereotypical characters; make judgements about a character’s actions, demonstrating empathy or offering alternative solutions to a problem; analyse the way that the main character(s) usually talks and look for evidence of the relationship between characters based on dialogue. • Settings are used to create atmosphere; look at examples of scene changes that move the plot on, relieve or build up the tension. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tell stories based on own experience and oral versions of familiar stories; include dialogue to set the scene and present characters; vary voice and intonation to create effects and sustain interest; sequence events clearly and have a definite ending; explore relationships and situations through drama. • Write complete stories with a full sequence of events in narrative order; include a dilemma or conflict and resolution; write an opening paragraph and further paragraphs for each stage of the story; use either 1st or 3rd person consistently; use conventions for written dialogue and include some dialogue that shows the relationship between two characters.
Year 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop understanding of story structure: recognise the stages of a story: introduction – build-up - climax or conflict – resolution; 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan and tell own versions of stories; tell effectively, e.g. using gestures, repetition,

	appreciate that chronology does not always run smoothly, (e.g.) some events are skimmed over, others are told in more depth. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop awareness that the author sets up dilemmas in the story and devises a solution. Make judgements about the success of the narrative, (e.g.) do you agree with the way that the problem was solved? Understand that the author or director creates characters to provoke a response in the reader, (e.g.) sympathy, dislike; discuss whether the narrator has a distinctive voice in the story. • Identify the use of figurative and expressive language to build a fuller picture of a character; look at the way that key characters respond to a dilemma and make deductions about their motives and feelings – discuss whether their behaviour was predictable or unexpected; explore the relationship between what characters say and what they do – do they always reveal what they are thinking? • Authors can create entire imaginary worlds; look for evidence of small details that are used to evoke time, place and mood. Look for evidence of the way that characters behave in different settings. 	traditional story openings and endings; explore dilemmas using drama techniques, (e.g.) improvise alternative courses of action for a character. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan complete stories by identifying stages in the telling: introduction – build-up – climax or conflict - resolution; use paragraphs to organise and sequence the narrative and for more extended narrative structures; use different ways to introduce or connect paragraphs, (e.g.) Sometime later..., Suddenly..., Inside the Castle...; use details to build character descriptions and evoke a response; develop settings using adjectives and figurative language to evoke time, place and mood.
Year 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognise that story structure can vary in different types of story and that plots can have high and low points; notice that the structure in extended narratives can be repeated with several episodes building up to conflict and resolution before the end of the story. Analyse more complex narrative structures and narratives that do not have a simple linear chronology, (e.g.) parallel narratives, time slip • Authors have particular styles and may have a particular audience in mind; discuss the author’s perspective on events and characters, (e.g.) the consequences of a character’s mistakes – do they get a second chance? author’s perspective and narrative viewpoint is not always the same - note who is telling the story, whether the author ever addresses the reader directly; check whether the viewpoint changes at all during the story; explore how the narration relates to events. • Look for evidence of characters changing during a story and discuss possible reasons, (e.g.) in response to particular experiences or over time, what it shows about the character and whether the change met or challenged the reader’s expectations; recognise that characters may 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan and tell stories to explore narrative viewpoint, (e.g.) re-tell a familiar story from the point of view of another character; demonstrate awareness of audience by using techniques such as recap, repetition of a catchphrase, humour; use spoken language imaginatively to entertain and engage the listener. • Develop particular aspects of story writing: experiment with different ways to open the story; add scenes, characters or dialogue to a familiar story; develop characterisation by showing the reader what characters say and do and how they feel and react at different points in the story. Plan and write complete stories; organise more complex chronological narratives into several paragraph units

	have different perspectives on events in the story; look for evidence of differences in patterns of relationships, customs, attitudes and beliefs by looking at the way characters act and speak and interact in older literature. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Different types of story can have typical settings. Real life stories can be based in different times or places, (e.g.) historical fiction – look for evidence of differences that will affect the way that characters behave, or the plot unfolds 	relating to story structure; adapt for narratives that do not have linear chronology, (e.g.) portray events happening simultaneously; Meanwhile...; extend ways to link paragraphs in cohesive narrative using adverbs and adverbial phrases; adapt writing for a particular audience; aim for consistency in character and style.
Year 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify story structures typical to particular fiction genres; recognise that narrative structure can be adapted and events revealed in different ways, (e.g.) stories within stories, flashbacks, revelations; analyse the paragraph structure in different types of story and note how links are made; make judgements in response to story endings, (e.g.) whether it was believable, whether dilemmas were resolved satisfactorily. • Look at elements of an author’s style to identify common elements and then make comparisons between books; consider how style is influenced by the time when they wrote and the intended audience; recognise that the narrator can change and be manipulated, (e.g.) a different character takes over the story-telling, the story has 2 narrators – talk about the effect that this has on the story and the reader’s response. • Identify stock characters in particular genres and look for evidence of characters that challenge stereotypes and surprise the reader, e.g. in parody; recognise that authors can use dialogue at certain points in a story to, (e.g.) explain plot, show character and relationships, convey mood or create humour. • Different episodes (in story and on film) can take place in different settings; discuss why and how the scene changes are made and how they affect the characters and events; recognise that authors use language carefully to influence the reader’s view of a place or situation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan and tell stories to explore different styles of narrative, present engaging narratives for an audience. • Plan quickly and effectively the plot, characters and structure of own narrative writing; use paragraphs to vary pace and emphasis; vary sentence length to achieve a particular effect; use a variety of techniques to introduce characters and develop characterisation; use dialogue at key points to move the story on or reveal new information. Create a setting by: using expressive or figurative language; describing how it makes the character feel; adding detail of sights and sounds; Vary narrative structure when writing complete stories, (e.g.) start with a dramatic event and then provide background information; use two narrators to tell the story from different perspectives; use the paragraph structure of non-linear narratives as a model for own writing; plan and write extended narrative.

Progression in Poetry

	Reading Poetry	Performing Poetry	Creating Poetry
	subject matter and theme language use style pattern	use of voice presentation	original playfulness with language and ideas detailed recreation of closely observed experience using different patterns
EYFS	listen to poems being read and talk about likes and dislikes – including ideas or puzzles, words, and patterns	join in with class rhymes and poems copy actions	enjoy making up funny sentences and playing with words look carefully at experiences and choose words to describe; make word collections or use simple repeating patterns
Year 1	discuss own response and what the poem is about talk about favourite words or parts of a poem notice the poems pattern	perform in unison, following the rhythm and keeping time imitate and invent actions	invent impossible ideas, e.g. magical wishes observe details of first-hand experiences using the senses and describe list words and phrases or use a repeating pattern or line.
Year 2	talk about own views, the subject matter and possible meanings comment on which words have most effect, noticing alliteration discuss simple poetry patterns	perform individually or together; speak clearly and audibly use actions and sound effects to add to the poems meaning	experiment with alliteration to create humorous and surprising combinations make adventurous word choices to describe closely observed experiences create a pattern or shape on the page; use simple repeating phrases or lines as models
Year 3	describe the effect a poem has and suggest possible interpretations discuss the choice of words and their impact, noticing how the poet creates sound effects by using alliteration, rhythm or rhyme and creates pictures using similes	perform individually or chorally; vary volume, experimenting with expression and use pauses for effect use actions, voices, sound effects and musical patterns to add to a performance	invent new similes and experiment with word play use powerful nouns, adjectives and verbs, experiment with alliteration write free verse; borrow or create a repeating pattern

	explain the pattern of different simple forms
Year 4	describe poems impact and explain own interpretation by referring to the poem comment on the use of similes and expressive language to create images, sound effects and atmosphere	vary volume, pace and use appropriate expression when performing use actions, sound effects, musical patterns and images to enhance a poem's meaning	use language playfully to exaggerate or pretend use similes to build images and identify clichés in own writing write free verse; use a repeating pattern; experiment with simple forms discuss the poems form and suggest the effect on the reader
Year 5	discuss poet's possible viewpoint, explain and justify own response and interpretation explain the use of unusual or surprising language choices and effects, such as onomatopoeia and metaphor; comment on how this influences meaning explore imagery including metaphor and personification compare different forms and describe impact	vary pitch, pace, volume, expression and use pauses to create impact use actions, sound effects, musical patterns, images and dramatic interpretation	invent nonsense words and situations and experiment with unexpected word combinations use carefully observed details and apt images to bring subject matter alive; avoid cliché in own writing write free verse; use or invent repeating patterns; attempt different forms, including rhyme for humour
Year 6	interpret poems, explaining how the poet creates shades of meaning; justify own views and explain underlying themes explain the impact of figurative and expressive language, including metaphor comment on poems structures and how these influence meaning	vary pitch, pace volume, rhythm and expression in relation to the poems meaning and form use actions, sound effects, musical patterns, images and dramatic interpretation, varying presentations by using ICT	use language imaginatively to create surreal, surprising, amusing and inventive poetry use simple metaphors and personification to create poems based on real or imagined experience select pattern or form to match meaning and own voice

Progression in Recounts

	Progression in recount texts This progression should be considered in relation to progression in narrative as the study of non-fiction and fiction recounts complement each other
EYFS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Informally recount incidents in own life to other children or adults and listen to others doing the same. Experiment with writing in a variety of play, exploratory and role-play situations. • Write sentences to match pictures or sequences of pictures illustrating an event. • Use experience of simple recounts as a basis for shared composition with an adult such as retelling, substituting or extending, leading to simple independent writing.
Year 1 and 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe incidents from own experience in an audible voice using sequencing words and phrases such as then, after that; listen to others recounts and ask relevant questions. • Read personal recounts and begin to recognise generic structure, e.g. ordered sequence of events, use of words like first, next, after, when. • Write simple first-person recounts linked to topics of interest/study or to personal experience, using the language of texts read as models for own writing, maintaining consistency in tense and person.
Year 3 and 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Watch or listen to third person recounts such as news or sports reports on television, radio or podcast. Identify the sequence of main events. Read examples of third person recounts such as letters, newspaper reports and diaries and recount the same event in a variety of ways, such as in the form of a story, a letter, a news report ensuring agreement in the use of pronouns. • Write newspaper style reports, e.g. about school events or an incident from a story, using a wider range of connectives, such as meanwhile, following, afterwards and including detail expressed in ways which will engage the reader Girls with swirling hijabs danced to the.... • Include recounts when creating paper or screen-based information texts.

Year 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the features of recounted texts such as sports reports, diaries, police reports, including introduction to set the scene, chronological sequence, varied but consistent use of past tense, e.g. As he was running away, he noticed..., possible supporting illustrations, degree of formality adopted and use of connectives. • Use the language features of recounts including formal language when recounting events orally. • Write recounts based on the same subject such as a field trip, a match or a historical event for two contrasting audiences such as a close friend and an unknown reader.
Year 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Distinguish between biography and autobiography, recognising the effect on the reader of the choice between first and third person, distinguishing between fact, opinion and fiction, distinguishing between implicit and explicit points of view and how these can differ. • Develop the skills of biographical and autobiographical writing in role, adapting distinctive voices, e.g. of historical characters, through preparing a CV; composing a biographical account based on research or describing a person from different perspectives, e.g. police description, school report, newspaper obituary. • When planning writing, select the appropriate style and form to suit a specific purpose and audience, drawing on knowledge of different non-fiction text types. • Use the language conventions and grammatical features of the different types of text as appropriate.

Progressions in Explanation Texts

Progression in explanatory texts
This progression should be considered in relation to progression in narrative as the study of non-fiction and fiction recounts complement each other.
EYFS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Talk about why things happen and how things work; ask questions and speculate. • Listen to someone explain a process and ask questions. • Give oral explanations e.g. their or another's motives; why and how they made a construction.
Year 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Read captions, pictures and diagrams on wall displays and in simple books that explain a process. • Draw pictures to illustrate a process and use the picture to explain the process orally.
Year 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • After carrying out a practical activity, (e.g.) experiment, investigation, construction task) contribute to creating a flowchart or diagram to explain the process, as member of group with the teacher. • After seeing and hearing an oral explanation of the process, explain the same process orally also using flowchart, language and gestures appropriately. • Read, with help, flowcharts or diagrams explaining other processes and then read others independently. • Following other practical tasks, produce a simple flowchart or diagram independently.
Year 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create diagrams such as flow charts to summarise or make notes of stages in a process (e.g. in science, D&T or geography), ensuring items are clearly sequenced. • Explain processes orally, using these notes, ensuring relevant details are included and accounts ended effectively.
Year 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Read and analyse explanatory texts to identify key features. • Distinguish between explanatory texts, reports and recounts while recognising that an information book might contain examples of all these forms of text or a combination of these forms • Orally summarise processes carried out in the classroom and on screen in flowcharts or cyclical diagrams as appropriate. • Contribute to the shared writing of an explanation where the teacher acts as scribe and models the use of paragraphs, connectives and the other key language and structural features appropriate to explanatory writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – purpose: to explain a process or to answer a question – structure: introduction, followed by sequential explanation, organised into paragraphs – language features: usually present tense; use of connectives of time and cause and effect; use of passive voice – presentation: use of diagrams and other illustrations, paragraphing, connectives, subheadings, numbering • After oral rehearsal, write explanatory texts independently from a flowchart or other diagrammatic plan, using the conventions modelled in shared writing.

Year 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Read and analyse a range of explanatory texts, investigating and noting features of impersonal style: complex sentences; use of passive voice; technical vocabulary; use of words/phrases to make sequential, causal or logical connections. • Engage in teacher demonstration of how to research and plan a page for a reference book on one aspect of a class topic using shared note-making and writing of the page, using an impersonal style, hypothetical language (if...then, might, when the...) and causal and temporal connections (e.g. while, during, after, because, as a result, due to, only when, so) as appropriate. • In shared writing and independently plan, compose, edit and refine explanatory texts, using reading as a source, focusing on clarity, conciseness and impersonal style.
Year 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Choose the appropriate form of writing and style to suit a specific purpose and audience drawing on knowledge of different non-fiction text types. • Use the language conventions and grammatical features of the different types of text, as appropriate.

Progressions in Information Texts

	Research skills (on page and on screen)	Creating information texts (on page and on screen)
EYFS	Track the words in text in the right order, page by page, left to right, top to bottom Learn order of alphabet through alphabet books, rhymes and songs	Distinguish between writing and drawing and write labels for pictures and drawings. Attempt writing for various purposes, using features of different forms, e.g. lists, stories and instructions
Year 1	Pose questions before reading non-fiction to find answers. Secure alphabetic letter knowledge and order and use simplified dictionaries. Initially with adult help and then independently, choose a suitable book to find the answers by orally predicting what a book might be about from a brief look at both front and back covers, including blurb, title, illustrations. Read and use captions, labels and lists. Begin to locate parts of text that give particular information, e.g. titles, contents page, index, pictures, labelled diagrams, charts, and locate information using page numbers and words by initial letter. Record information gleaned from books, (e.g.) as lists, a completed chart, extended captions for display, a fact file on IT.	Convey information and ideas in simple nonnarrative forms such as labels for drawings and diagrams, extended captions and simple lists for planning or reminding. Independently choose what to write about, orally rehearse, plan and follow it through.
Year 2	Pose and orally rehearse questions ahead of writing and record these in writing, before reading. Recognise that non-fiction books on similar themes can give different information and present similar information in different ways. Use contents pages and alphabetically ordered texts (e.g.) dictionaries, encyclopaedias, indexes, directories,	Write simple information texts incorporating labelled pictures and diagrams, charts, lists as appropriate. Draw on knowledge and experience of texts in deciding and planning what and how to write. Maintain consistency in non-narrative, including purpose and tense

	registers. Locate definitions/explanations in dictionaries and glossaries. Scan texts to find specific sections (e.g. key words or phrases, subheadings) and skim-read title, contents page, illustration, chapter headings and subheadings to speculate what a book might be about and evaluate its usefulness for the research in hand. Scan a website to find specific sections e.g. key words or phrases, subheadings. Appraise icons, drop down menus and other hyperlinks to speculate what it might lead to and evaluate its usefulness for the research in hand. Close read text to gain information, finding the meaning of unknown words by deducing from text, asking someone, or referring to a dictionary or encyclopaedia. Make simple notes from non-fiction texts, e.g. key words and phrases, page references, headings, to use in subsequent writing	Create an alphabetically ordered dictionary or glossary of special interest words. Design and create a simple ICT text
Year 3	Before researching, orally recall to mind, existing knowledge on the subject and reduce the options for enquiry by posing focused questions. Compose questions to ask of the text. Have a secure understanding of the purpose and organisation of the dictionary (i.e. know the quartiles of the dictionary, m lies around halfway mark and t towards the end). Use second place letter to locate and sequence in alphabetical order. Understand the term definition; use dictionaries to learn or check the definitions of words and a thesaurus to find synonyms.	Recount the same event in a variety of ways, e.g. in the form of a story, a letter, a news report. Decide how to present information and make informed choices by using structures from different text types. Create alphabetically ordered texts incorporating information from other subjects, own experience or derived from other information books. Use a computer to bring information texts to published form with appropriate layout, font etc. Create multi-media information texts.

	Begin to scan indexes, directories and IT sources to locate information quickly and accurately. Recognise the differences in presentation between texts e.g. between fiction and non-fiction, between books and IT-based sources, between magazines, leaflets and reference texts. Within a text, routinely locate information using contents, index, headings, sub-headings, page numbers, bibliographies, hyperlinks, icons and drop-down menus. Find and mark the key idea in a section of text. Make clear notes by identifying key words, phrases or sentences in reading and making use of simple formats to capture key points, e.g. flow chart, for and against columns, grids to take notes in writing or on screen. Make a simple record of information from texts read, e.g. by listing words, drawing together notes from more than one source.	Write ideas, messages in shortened forms such as notes, lists, headlines, telegrams and text messages understanding that some words are more essential to meaning than others. Summarise orally in one sentence the content of a passage or text, and the main point it is making.
Year 4	Prepare for factual research by reviewing what is known, what is needed, what is available and where one might search. Routinely use dictionaries and thesaurus and use 3rd and 4th place letters to locate and sequence words in alphabetical order. Scan texts in print or on screen to locate key words or phrases, headings, lists, bullet points, captions and key sentences (to appraise their usefulness in supporting the reader to gain information effectively. Collect information from a variety of sources. Identify how paragraphs are used to organise and sequence information. Mark and annotate headings, key sentences and words in printed text or on screen.	Fill out brief notes into connected prose. Present information from a variety of sources in one simple format, e.g. chart, labelled diagram, graph. Develop and refine ideas in writing using planning and problem-solving strategies Edit down and reword a sentence or paragraph by deleting the less important elements, e.g. repetitions, asides, secondary considerations and explain the reasons for the editorial choices

	Make short notes, e.g. by abbreviating ideas, selecting key words, listing or in diagrammatic form.
Year 5	Routinely prepare for factual research by reviewing what is known, what is needed, what is available and where one might search. Use dictionaries and other alphabetically ordered texts efficiently. Appraise potentially useful texts quickly and effectively. Evaluate texts critically by comparing how different sources treat the same information. Begin to look for signposts that indicate the reliability of a factual source. Locate information in a text in print or on screen confidently and efficiently through using contents, indexes, sections, headings +IT equivalent; skimming to gain overall sense of text; scanning to locate specific information; close reading to aid understanding. Sift through passages for relevant information and present ideas in note form that are effectively grouped and linked. Use simple abbreviations while note taking. Understand what is meant by in your own words and when it is appropriate to copy, quote and adapt. Make notes for different purposes, e.g. noting key points as a record of what has been read, listing cues for a talk.	Convert personal notes into notes for others to read, paying attention to appropriateness of style, vocabulary and presentation. Create plans for information texts drawing on knowledge of text types to decide form and style for different elements. Create an information text with a variety of elements, e.g. labelled explanatory diagram, reporting chart, recount. Summarise a passage, chapter or text in a specific number of words. Read a passage and retell it in your own words_
Year 6	Having pooled information on a topic, construct and follow a plan for researching further information. Routinely appraise a text quickly, deciding on its value, quality or usefulness. Evaluate the status of source material, looking for possible bias and comparing different sources	In writing information texts, select the appropriate style and form to suit a specific purpose and audience, drawing on knowledge of different non-fiction text types. Establish, balance and maintain viewpoints

	on the same subject. Recognise (when listening or reading) rhetorical devices used to argue, persuade, mislead and sway the reader. Evaluate the language, style and effectiveness of examples of non-fiction writing such as periodicals, reviews, reports, leaflets. Read examples of official language such as consumer information and legal documents. Identify characteristic features of layout such as use of footnotes, instructions, parentheses, headings, appendices and asterisks. Understand the way standard English varies in different contexts, e.g. why legal language is necessarily highly formalised, why questionnaires must be specific.	Use the conventions and language of debate when orally rehearsing a balanced argument. Revise own non-fiction writing to reduce superfluous words and phrases. Discuss and explain differences in the use of formal language and dialogue Listen for language variations in formal and informal contexts Identify the ways spoken language varies

Progression in Persuasive Writing

EYFS	Talk about how they respond to certain words, stories and pictures by behaving or wanting to behave in particular ways (e.g. pictures of food that make them want to eat things) Watch and listen when one person is trying to persuade another to do something or go somewhere. Recognising what is happening. Give oral explanations (e.g.) their or another's motives; why and how they can persuade or be persuaded.
Year 1	Read captions, pictures, posters and adverts that are trying to persuade. Begin to recognise what they are trying to do and some of the ways they do it. Through games and role play begin to explore what it means to persuade or be persuaded, and what different methods might be effective.
Year 2	As part of a wide range of reading, explore simple persuasive texts (posters, adverts, etc.) and begin to understand what they are doing and how. Evaluate simple persuasive devices (e.g.) Say which posters in a shop or TV adverts would make them want to buy something, and why) Create simple signs posters and adverts (involving words and/or other modes of communication) to persuade others to do, think or buy something. Continue to explore persuading and being persuaded in a variety of real-life situations through role-play and drama.
Year 3	Read and evaluate a wider range of simple persuasive texts, explaining and evaluating responses orally. Begin to use words, pictures and other communication modes to persuade others when appropriate to particular writing purpose. Through role play and drama explore particular persuasive scenarios (e.g. a parent persuading a reluctant child to go to bed.) and discuss the effectiveness of different strategies used.

Year 4	Read and analyse a range of persuasive texts to identify key features (e.g. letters to newspapers, discussions of issues in books, such as animal welfare or environmental issues). Distinguish between texts which try to persuade and those that simply inform, whilst recognising that some texts might contain examples of each of these. Analyse how a particular view can most convincingly be presented, e.g. ordering points to link them together so that one follows from another; how statistics, graphs, images, visual aids, etc. can be used to support or reinforce arguments From examples of persuasive writing, investigate how style and vocabulary are used to convince the reader. Evaluate advertisements for their impact, appeal and honesty, focusing in particular on how information about the product is presented: exaggerated claims, tactics for grabbing attention, linguistic devices such as puns, jingles, alliteration, invented words Both orally and in writing, assemble and sequence points in order to plan the presentation of a point of view, e.g. on hunting, school rules using more formal language appropriately. Use writing frames if necessary, to back up points of view with illustrations and examples To present a point of view both orally and in writing,(e.g. in the form of a letter, a report or presentation) linking points persuasively and selecting style and vocabulary appropriate to the listener/reader; begin to explore how ICT other use of multimodality might support this. (e.g. showing pictures.) Design an advertisement, such as a poster or radio jingle, on paper or screen, e.g. for a school fête or an imaginary product, making use of linguistic and other features learnt from reading examples

	Explore the use of connectives, e.g. adverbs, adverbial phrases, conjunctions, to structure a persuasive argument, e.g. if..., then; on the other hand...; finally; so
Year 5	Read and evaluate letters, e.g. from newspapers or magazines, intended to inform, protest, complain, persuade, considering how they are set out, and how language is used, e.g. to gain attention, respect, manipulate Read other examples (e.g. newspaper comment, headlines, adverts, fliers) to compare writing which informs and persuades, considering for example the deliberate use of ambiguity, half-truth, bias; how opinion can be disguised to seem like fact Select and evaluate a range of texts, in print and other media, on paper and on screen, for persuasiveness, clarity, quality of information • Collect and investigate use of persuasive devices such as words and phrases, persuasive definitions, rhetorical questions, pandering, condescension, concession and deliberate ambiguities Draft and write individual, group or class persuasive letters for real purposes, e.g. put a point of view, comment on an emotive issue, protest; to edit and present to finished state Write a commentary on an issue on paper or screen (e.g. as a news editorial or leaflet), setting out and justifying a personal view; to use structures from reading to set out and link points, e.g. numbered lists, bullet points Construct an argument in note form or full text to persuade others of a point of view and: present the case to the class or a group; use standard English appropriately; evaluate its effectiveness. Explore how ICT or other use of multimodality might support this. (e.g. develop a PowerPoint presentation.) Understand how persuasive writing can be adapted for different audiences and purposes, e.g. by using formal language where

	appropriate, and how it can be incorporated into or combined with other text types.
Year 6	Through reading and analysis, recognise how persuasive arguments are constructed to be effective through, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – the expression, sequence and linking of points – providing persuasive examples, illustration and evidence – pre-empting or answering potential objections – appealing to the known views and feelings of the audience Orally and in writing, construct effective persuasive arguments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – using persuasive language techniques to deliberately influence the listener. – developing a point logically and effectively – supporting and illustrating points persuasively (using ICT and multi-modality where and when appropriate) – anticipating possible objections – harnessing the known views, interests and feelings of the audience – tailoring the writing to formal presentation where appropriate Use reading to investigate conditionals and their persuasive uses and build a bank of useful phrases for using in an persuasive argument. Overall, participate in whole class debates using the conventions and language of debate including standard English. In oral and written texts help to build the ability to choose the appropriate style and form to suit a specific purpose and audience, drawing on knowledge of different non-fictional text types and adapting, conflating and combining these where appropriate.

Progression in Instruction Writing

EYFS	Listen to and follow single instructions, and then a series of two and three instructions Give oral instructions when playing. Read and follow simple classroom instructions on labels with additional pictures or symbols. Attempt to write instructions on labels, for instance in role play area
Year 1	Listen to and follow a single more detailed instruction and a longer series of instructions. Think out and give clear single oral instructions. Routinely read and follow written classroom labels carrying instructions. Read and follow short series of instructions in shared context. Contribute to class composition of instructions with teacher scribing. Write two consecutive instructions independently
Year 2	Listen to and follow a series of more complex instructions. Give clear oral instructions to members of a group. Read and follow simple sets of instructions such as recipes, plans, constructions which include diagrams. Analyse some instructional texts and note their function, form and typical language features: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -statement of purpose, list of materials or ingredients, sequential steps -direct/imperative language -use of adjectives and adverbs limited to giving essential information -emotive/value-laden language not generally used As part of a group with the teacher, compose a set of instructions with additional diagrams.

	Write simple instructions independently e.g. getting to school, playing a game
Year 3	Read and follow instructions. Give clear oral instructions to members of a group. Read and compare examples of instructional text, evaluating their effectiveness. Analyse more complicated instructions and identify organisational devices which make them easier to follow, e.g. lists, numbered, bulleted points, diagrams with arrows, keys. Research a particular area (e.g. playground games) and work in small groups to prepare a set of oral instructions. Try out with other children, giving instruction and listening and following theirs. Evaluate effectiveness of instructions. Write clear written instructions using correct register and devices to aid the reader.
Year 4/5	In group work, give clear oral instructions to achieve the completion of a common task. Follow oral instructions of increased complexity. Evaluate sets of instructions (including attempting to follow some of them) for purpose, organisation and layout, clarity and usefulness. Identify sets of instructions which are for more complex procedures or are combined with other text types (e.g. some recipes). Compare these in terms of audience/purpose and form (structure and language features). Write a set of instructions (using appropriate form and features) and test them out on other people, revise and try them out again.
Year 6	Choose the appropriate form of writing and style to suit a specific purpose and audience drawing on knowledge of different non-fiction text types. Use the language conventions and grammatical features of the different types of text as appropriate

Progression in Non-Chronological Reports

EYFS	Describe something/someone (possibly after drawing it/them). Develop the description in response to prompts or questions (what does she like to eat? Has she a favourite toy?) Ask similar probing questions to elicit a fuller description from someone else. In a shared reading context read information books and look at/re-read the books independently. Experiment with writing labels, captions and sentences for pictures or drawings in a variety of play, exploratory and role-play situations.
Year 1	Find out about a subject by listening and following text as information books are read, watching a video. Contribute to a discussion on the subject as information is assembled and the teacher writes the information. Assemble information on a subject in own experience, (e.g.) food, pets. Write a simple non-chronological report by writing sentences to describe aspects of the subject.
Year 2	After a practical activity or undertaking some research in books or the web, take part in a discussion in another curriculum subject, generalising from repeated occurrences or observations. Distinguish between a description of a single member of a group and the group in general e.g. a particular dog and dogs in general. Read texts containing information in a simple report format, e.g. There are two sorts of x...; They live in x...; the A's have x..., but the B's etc. Assemble information on another subject and use the text as a template for writing a report on it, using appropriate language to present, and categorise ideas.
Year 3	Analyse several report texts and note their function, form and typical language features: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • introduction indicating an overall classification of what is being described • use of short statement to introduce each new item • language (specific and sometimes technical) to describe and differentiate • impersonal language • mostly present tense Teacher demonstrates research and note-taking techniques using information and ICT texts on a subject and using a spidergram to organise the information.

	Distinguish between generalisations and specific information and between recounts and reports, using content taken from another area of the curriculum. Analyse broadcast information to identify presentation techniques and notice how the language used signals change. Teacher demonstrates how to write non-chronological report using notes in a spidergram; draws attention to importance of subject verb agreements with generic participants (e.g.) family is..., people are... Write own report independently based on notes from several sources.
Year 4/5	Collect information to write a report in which two or more subjects are compared, (e.g.) spiders and beetles; solids, liquids and gases, observing that a grid rather than a spidergram is appropriate for representing the information. Draw attention to the precision in the use of technical terminology and how many of the nouns are derived from verbs Teacher demonstrates the writing of a non-chronological report, including the use of organisational devices to aid conciseness such as numbered lists or headings. Plan, compose, edit and refine short non-chronological comparative report focusing on clarity, conciseness and impersonal style.
Year 6	Secure understanding of the form, language conventions and grammatical features of non-chronological reports. Write reports as part of a presentation on a non-fiction subject. Choose the appropriate style and form of writing to suit a specific purpose and audience, drawing on knowledge of different non-fiction text types.
